

Statement

Because customer safety is our top priority at Sur-ron, we hereby declare:

Modification, alterations, and installation of parts that are not Sur-ron parts or supplied as original equipment are not covered by warranty. Sur-ron will not take any responsibilities for any problems arising from modifications, alterations, or aftermarket replacement on the following parts (including but not limited to): battery, motor, controller, electric circuit, throttle, transmission system, suspension system and brake system, etc.

We kindly remind all Sur-ron customers: to protect yourself and your property, please be careful with modified parts. Thank you again for your support.
